

Population, Education, and Health Seminar Series

Select Thursdays, 12:30–1:30 pm (unless otherwise noted)

- January 30                      Rebecca North, School of Natural Resources, University of Missouri
Discussants: David Switzer, Truman School of Public Affairs; and Nasser
Yazdani, Health Sciences
Are Green Water Bodies Toxic Water Bodies?
Student Center—Room 1209
- February 27                     Claire Altman, Health Sciences and the Truman School of Public Affairs,
University of Missouri; Christal Hamilton, Truman School of Public Affairs,
University of Missouri
Methods Workshop: Multiple Imputation
Student Center—Room 1209
- March 19                         Daniel Laurison, Assistant Professor of Sociology at Swarthmore College
TBD
Student Center—Room 2205
- April 16                         Kevin Mwenda, Assistant Professor of Population Studies, Brown University
TBD
Student Center—Room 2205

Sponsored by the Provost's Office, College of Arts & Science, Department of Economics, Department of Health Sciences, Department of Public Health, Department of Sociology, School of Social Work, Truman School of Public Affairs, the School of Health Professions, and the MU Institute for Data Science and Informatics.

For more information about this seminar series, please contact Eileen Avery at averye@missouri.edu