To begin, start the ArcSoft application from the dock. The following screen will appear. Double click on Capture. Click on the camera with a wrench icon or press command + w. Set the Contrast to 47 with the slider or type it in and click OK. Click on the full screen icon or press command + f. When finished click on the X to close this window.

For computer related questions: A&S Computer Response 884-0121

For projector issues: Academic Support Center 882-3608